Several times, while riding on a truck, source observed a radio station in Kirov (58-33N, 49-42E) with towers arranged in a hexagon. The towers were 20 to 25 meters high, 25 to 30 meters apart, and moored with guy ropes. The radio towers were connected in pairs by two antenna wires. The installation was in a patch of trees. The only building observed was a wooden house. Several soldiers were observed around the radio station.

  Comment: Annex 2,  

  shows a radio station located north of the town hill and west of the wide north-south street running through Kirov. A comparison of Annex 2 with Annex 1, starting from the location of P Camp No. 7307/1, shows that the radio station mentioned in the present report is identical with that noted in Annex 2.
